INDIANS ON THE PLAINS.—In view of the fact that telegraph communication is stopped across the plains, and the Indians are interfering with both the mails and the wires on the Overland route, the following from the Salt Lake City Telegraph, of January 18th will be read with great interest

The telegraphic wires have already reported the new disturbances with Indians on the Platte The Rocky Mountain News of the 9th state that on the 7th a dispatch was received at Denver from Clark's Keith's and Cook's trains bound eastward, stating that four of the teamsters had been killed by the Indians

A dispatch was also received, the same day from the Julesburg office saying that the Indians had cleaned out the town, smashed all the windows, doors and furniture in all the houses and robbed everything from the Express coach coming towards Denver except one package of greenbacks, which the messenger chanced to save, and escaped with to the fort adjoining the town, which the few citizens and soldiers occupied Five dead bodies were lying on the town site The commander of the post desired no dispatches sent until he first had forwarded his own report of the day's work and consequences The telegraph machine" was taken up to the fort before the office was "cleaned out"

There was in Denver an unconfirmed rumor that a train encamped near Bijou station was attacked on the 7th, the train burned, and most of the men killed.

A dispatch, dated Junction Station on the 8th from G W Clayton a passenger to the east said "We consider the danger over and will proceed as soon as the road superintendent will allow us"

The following dispatch was received at Denver on the 8th:

Valley Station Sunday Evening, January 8—Men went down the road to-day to look after the men that were killed by the Indians yesterday We found men killed and scalped, and horses and wagons burned, all along the road Post's train from Denver had one man killed, named Andrews, five men wounded severely, two horses killed and the wagons burned Marsh's train had one man killed, two wounded slightly one mule killed, one wagon burned, and the stock and men all missing Haynes' train had three men killed and four wagons burned One party of Indians are three miles in the bluffs, but we could not catch them. The coach to day was escorted by ten soldiers, who saw Indians in the Bluffs all along the road HAINES, Operator

The following purports to be a copy of a dispatch from Major O'Brien, at Julesburg to General Mitchell, of Omaha, received January 8th or 9th

"My scout just in reports an Indian village ten or fifteen miles south of White Man's Fork He supposed he was within six miles of the village The Indians that I fought yesterday were seen by my scout on White Man's Fork, about 60 miles south of here Indians attacked Dennison's ranch at the time I was fighting them They killed and wounded seven white men The force on the Republican is not less than 4,000 warriors, this is the report of my scouts and Jewett, also 50 of my best men."

A telegram from the Express messenger at Julesburg to Mr. Dahler, agent at Denver, of the same date, said that he (the messenger) had just found the treasure trunk about two miles from Julesburg and a small amount of money on the field close by. Diligent search was being made for the articles from the Express coach The messenger also stated, "we buried 20 white men here to-day"

A letter from Fort Lyon, January 2d, to Lieutenant-Colonel Tappan, Denver, contains the following

Eighteen men en route from New Mexico to the States, were attacked about 100 miles below here, a few days since, by 100 Indians. These men dug a hole in the bank of the river and fought the Indians for three days, losing six killed A large train coming from Fort Larned, gave them relief. The Indians were traveling north mounted and equipped for war Tribe not known.

The Utes, it is said, are anxious to join their white brethren in a campaign against the Indians on the plains.

The people of Colorado are naturally greatly excited on the matter, and on the 7th Acting Governor Elbert sent the following dispatch to Governor Evans at Washington

Governor Evans The Indians are again murdering travelers and butchering trains on the plains. Get authority to raise a regiment of cavalry for one year's service We must have 5,000 troops to clean out these savages, or the people of this Territory will be compelled to leave it. Everything is already at starvation prices The General Government must help us or give up the Territory to the ruthless savages

S. H. ELBERT,
Acting Governor Colorado Ter.

While the General Government sends the troops, let it send incorruptible men to investigate who fired the first shot

GEORGE H PENDLETON.—Speaking of the persistency with which George H Pendleton thrusts himself before the attention of the National House of Representatives the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

Those who have the honor of an acquaintance with the gentleman who is reported to have run for Vice President recently, supposed the expiring hours of his political life would be characterized with that peaceful composure and quiet resignation to the decree of fate which would fittingly terminate a career spent in defending a Constitution which has preceded him to the abyss of oblivion It was believed that when his summons came, on the 8th of November last to join the vast innumerable throng that moves toward the pale realms of everlasting played out activeness, he would wrap the drapery of his couch about him and make a respectable die of it But he will not

Scarcely had the House been called to order yesterday when he jumped up and offered a resolution of inquiry of a strictly partisan character He is going to die harder than Macbeth in a village theatre, or Richard III in a lager beer concert saloon—where the audience demand in return for their admission fee, a terrific sword combat and some violently kicking by the vanquished monarch How graceful it would be for him to shuffle off the political coil so gently and placidly that his friends could say of him on the 4th of March 'He is not dead, but sleepeth!' But he will persist in these agonizing gestures which will render demise extremely painful for himself to undergo and for his friends to behold

The Camanche may now be considered a completed craft and the speed with which the first iron clad in the Pacific waters was constructed is worthy of comment Only six months and two days have elapsed since the contractors put to work, upon her muddy disjecta membra, the laborers who have fitted her for her defensive mission as the indomitable guardian of our harbor During this time there was little working in the night and on Sundays The number of men employed upon her was between 300 and 400 The time required by Eastern contractors to set up from the keel a Monitor like the Camanche is generally about ten months showing a difference of four months in favor of our first California job in that line done at a point lacking the facilities of Eastern yards, and without the aid of the Government bonus which is allowed in the East [illegible] the credit of the California builder [illegible] remembered They took the contract for the Camanche in June 1864, when gold was at a premium of [illegible] 16 cents, where it [illegible] a premium of at least 144 Besides the heavy [illegible] must sustain from depreciation of currency they have had to pay their California laborers [illegible] the wages paid in the Eastern yard, and at [illegible] making the wages here about four times as much as there.—Alta.

The Buffalonians are disappointed They have had no raid and don't feel at all well about it The Buffalo Courier says if the raid doesn't come off soon our authorities will [illegible] the raiders and conclude that they have only a [illegible] existence.

During the publications of the marriage banns, in Trinity Church, Islington England, the other day, a woman arose in the gallery and [illegible] in a loud voice, "I forbid that marriage [illegible] to be the wife of the gentleman, who was [illegible] tions of another.

The Monroe Doctrine.

Had there been no American war, there would have been no Mexican Empire. Taking advantage of our domestic difficulties, and basing their action upon the idea that the attempt at the disunion of the States would be accomplished by the success of the rebellion, France, England and Spain devised the scheme of interference with Mexican affairs, which was finally left by the other powers for France to carry out. All Europe knew that the United States had enunciated as an American axiom, that foreign nations were to keep "hands off" the Western Continent. Rather a bold theory, dating, however, from the time when Monroe first placed it upon the records of State and enduring so long that it has become a National idea and principle of faith, upon which no party differs, so suiting the popular sentiment, and gratifying our National self-esteem, that it seems safe from the assaults of demagogues, however it may answer in its operation.

It was almost audacity to banter the world by such an assumption, at the early day when Monroe wielded our destinies; but toujours l'audace has been our motto in the past if our actions speak for us, and no doubt it will be the spirit of our future. When Napoleon claimed to have wrongs to redress against Mexico, Secretary Seward notified the French Emperor the United States would "insist that France shall not improve the war she makes to raise up in Mexico an anti-Republican or anti-American Government, or to maintain such a Government there," a project that he distinctly and repeatedly declared he did not entertain. If he has forfeited his word and falsified his pledges, it has been done with the frequent reiteration on the part of our Government that its policy remained unchanged as to the relations of France to Mexico. Maximilian has not been recognized by us as the Emperor of any American State, and if the attempt of France to subvert the liberties of the Mexican people has not been resented by the United States, it is simply because, like sensible men, our rulers bide their time, and save the question both in argument and solution for the good time coming, when the rebellion having ceased, we can afford to notice the usurpation of Mexican power by French bayonets. It is not impossible that we might assert the Monroe doctrine with success at the present time, and enforce the principle at the expense of a foreign war; but our rulers take a politic view of it, and conclude that the present imbroglio is sufficient for the time, and prefer to defer an issue that will not spoil by waiting.

Several of our cotemporaries are commenting severely upon the course of Secretary Seward, and think he should be superseded by some one possessed of sufficient policy and more decided qualities, which is strongly seconded by a resolution passed the House at the late session of Congress, aimed at the Government policy, and especially at the Executive Department, as follows:

> Resolved, That Congress has a constitutional right to an authoritative voice in delaring and prescribing the foreign policy of the United States, as well as in the recognition of new Powers and other things, and it is the constitutional duty of the Executive Department to respect that policy not less in diplomatic negotiations than in the use of the national force when authorized by law. And the propriety of any declaration of any foreign policy by Congress is sufficiently proved by the vote which pronounced it; and such proposition, while pending and undetermined, is not a fit topic for diplomatic explanation with any foreign Power.

A foreign war could be safer undertaken now than three months ago, and will be safer undertaken, if it must come, when we are again in peace at home: in fact it might answer a good purpose, if it could serve to rally together again the old American feeling, and unite it to fight under the old flag in a common cause. France knows there is a day of reckoning coming, and if she is in no hurry to precipitate it, we can certainly afford to wait until the "sign is right" before we ask for a settlement. Let us at least seal up the remaining Southern ports, before we invite intervention and foreign aid for domestic foes.

The Monroe doctrine is one that all parties second, and that has been incorporated into our national policy most properly. There is no room for the aristocratic and privileged classes of Europe upon American soil; no opportunity should be allowed for the spreading of imperial power over the Western Hemisphere. Let the old world jog along apace with what of improvement and progress it can command, and we of the West will try the effect of free institutions, unhindered and unprejudiced by feudal pride or imperial power.

Personal.—We were favored yesterday with a call from Gov. Lyon, of Idaho, and J. Cummins, late President of the Council of that Territory. Gov. Lyon is on his way to San Francisco on business connected with the Territory, and will very probably go on to Washington to advance its interests. Like so many others, he is much pleased with the future prospects of Idaho, and convinced that its mineral resources need only to be developed to rival any of the richest gold and silver regions known. The people of that Territory are fortunate in having an Executive who identifies himself with its interests, and is so able to advance them. Having seen persons from various parts of that Territory, we notice that irrespective of party feeling the people entertain the most friendly feeling for the Governor, and confidence in his desire to advance their prosperity.

Owyhee Mines in N. Y.—A letter received from D. G. Bradford by a friend in Portland, speaking of the Idaho mines, says that there is a general interest felt there in our northern mines, and that those who have gone on to organize companies will have no trouble to raise all the capital they need to work on, if they have "their papers right" from here. Already five or six mills are on the way from New York, bound for our upper country.

For the Upper Columbia.—A few days since we endeavored to give an idea of the importance of the Kootenai and that upper world, and gave particulars of the route thither, and the expected steamer for the upper Columbia above Colville. We learn that thirty batteaux are building at Colville for the same trade, which, with the steamer soon to be built, will accommodate the trade and facilitate travel.

Back Emigration.—The New York World says that while the late drought has driven very many of the Californians to Nevada, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, very many have also returned back to the older States.

Somebody Coming.—Fifteen widows, averaging from 19 to 50, lately started from New York to California. They are probably war widows, and are bent on carrying the war on in California.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO FEBRUARY 1.

A Fight with the Indians on the Plains.

San Francisco, February 6th.

Salt Lake, Feb. 6.—The line east of Fort Laramie is still down and we cannot tell when it will be all right again.

The troops that left Fort Laramie to reinforce those at Mud Springs, have arrived at that station, yet they are not able to cope with the Indians and have as much as they can do to hold the place. There are about two hundred soldiers there now and about one thousand Indians in that vicinity.

The operator reports the fight going on, and that there is so much firing that he cannot hear the click of his instrument.

The officer in command has telegraphed to Fort Laramie for all the troops that can be spared, and two cannon.

We have heard nothing from Julesburg for five days. At that time it was reported that the Indians were burning that station.

The Overland Mail Company had a large supply of corn at Julesburg, all of which is supposed to have been burned.

The Mud Springs station is sixty miles east of Fort Laramie.

Salt Lake, Feb. 6, 4 p. m.—We have just received the following from Fort Laramie:

Fort Laramie, Feb. 6th, 3:20 p. m.—No communication with Omaha for five days. The Indians hold the line between Mud Springs and Julesburg. The damage to the line is unknown. On Saturday the Indians attacked the Mud Springs telegraph office. Reinforcements were immediately sent there.

Mud Springs, Feb. 6th, 10 a. m.—The fight commenced this morning in all directions. The Indians are estimated at 500.

Mud Springs, Feb. 6th, 10:20 a. m.—Skirmishers are firing lively. The Indians are thick on the bluffs.

Mud Springs, Feb. 6th, 11 a. m.—Very sharp fighting is going on, and several of us are wounded, and many mules and horses have been shot.

Mud Springs, Feb. 6th, 2 p. m.—The Indians cut the line between here and Fort Laramie, and we had hard fighting to get it up. The fighting has ceased for the present, but the Indians are still in sight.

Fort Laramie, Feb. 6th, 3 p. m.—The line is again cut. More reinforcements with artillery are just leaving for Mud Springs.

Fort Laramie, Feb. 6th, 9 p. m.—Two operators left here this morning, with all dispatches from the west up to last night. They are under escort of fifty dragoons, and will go through and put up the line if possible till they get communication with the East. They have portable telegraph instruments, and will keep up communication from each camping place. This detachment have two cannon with them for the forces now at Mud Springs, which they will use on the way should the Indians attack them. It is one hundred miles from here to Mud Springs.

The detachment that left Saturday reached that station this morning pretty well worn out. Fighting was going on there at 2 o'clock, when we last communication and have not heard from them since. It is supposed that the Indians have torn the line down this side. Creighton, Superintendent of the Pacific Telegraph, had 1,000 head of cattle at Mud Springs, all of which fell into the hands of the Indians. Its sixty miles from Mud Springs to Julesburg. All ranches and stations between these points have been cleaned out by the Indians. It is not thought the Indians have destroyed much of the line, and the party that started this morning may soon be able to open communication.

California News.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Steamer, Constitution arrived at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When the signal guns were fired, the reception committees rushed to the wharf with their hats in hand, and thousands of spectators thronged to receive the conquering hero; but when the steamer touched the wharf it was found that Gen. Sickles was not on board, and had never intended coming to San Francisco; that he had stopped at Panama en route to Bogota, South America, on special Government business. The announcement of his departure for San Francisco proves to have been a mistake on the part of the gentleman who telegraphed it.

Mrs. Lewis, a mulatto woman, and an employee of Pioche & Bayerque, was suffocated in her bedroom last night. The house, on Greenwich street, between Taylor and Jones, caught fire from a candle. The fire was extinguished without much damage, but Mrs. Lewis was found dead.

In the case of Ophir vs. W. L. & J. Dall, the jury found for the defendants. Attachments to the amount of $13,000 has been issued against Warshawske Bros.

About sixty soldiers, stationed at the Presidio, publish a card in the American Flag, denying the truth of Inspector Keeny's report that the rations etc., are up to the proper standard.

John F. Hohns was drowned while gathering mussels at the Cliff House on Saturday.

The counsel for Corbett, alias Brummagim, moves for a new trial, on the ground that his client was never arraigned and never pleaded. Testimony was introduced to show that the minutes were incorrect.

Branger's Restaurant, on Kearny street, was burnt last night.

The Chollar Mining Company have declared ten dollars dividend.

Legal Tenders, 50½@50⅞.

The Brother Jonathan, from San Pedro, arrived last night. Much excitement prevails in Los Angeles about petroleum. The Los Angelos Pioneer Oil Company, incorporated January 24th, control 100,000 acres with fifty miles of sea coast.

Dates from Lima to January 13th. South American Congress had left Peru and is apparently inclined to surrender at discretion. Negotiations had commenced.

Letter from Kootenai Mines.

Rich Discoveries on the Upper Columbia.

Fisherville, Dec. 20, 1864.

Mr. ———: Dear Sir—I left Walluia on the 8th of November and arrived at the Kootenai Mines on the 9th inst. I had the devil's own time in getting here, and got here without either mules or cargo. I brought the train within about forty miles of the diggings, and then was compelled to leave my cargo and send the mules back to winter quarters (what has not already died). I am not certain of saving a mule. The chances are greatly against me, and that I will come out about as I did in 1862.

There are between two and three hundred men wintering here at present, and would have been twice that number had it not have been for the excitement on the Columbia river. This camp (Kootenai district) will supply about three thousand miners, which is confined to one creek, which extends about four miles. The diggings commence about four miles from the mouth of the creek and extend four miles up the stream. This creek heads in the Rocky Mountains, runs in a westerly direction and empties into the Kootenai river. From the mouth of the creek it is not more than sixty miles to the Flatbow Lake, which forms the head of the Columbia river. We have had it from prospectors who have been there, that the mines on the north side of the Columbia are richer and more extensive than the Kootenai mines which have been discovered this fall. Men are leaving here every day for the new El Dorado, which is about one hundred and seventy-five miles from here. The new mines are on a stream putting into the Columbia about forty miles below the mouth of the Spillamacheen. I never have seen as flattering prospects in any mining camp as I think there are in this country the coming season. Take the prospect as it is at present, and I think it is second to none on the Pacific slope. If you see any of the boys with whom I am acquainted, who are bound to try the mines the coming season, you can tell them that I think they can't come to a better country than this; and though I consider this the best mining camp I ever struck, I don't wish to advise any one pro or con. In short, you can tell the boys that this country suits me. The mules could not have died in a better time.

I would advise no one to start before the last of March, as the travel is very difficult early in the spring; and I would advise the miners to bring their own provisions, or enough to last them until pack trains can come with a supply, as provisions are very scarce now. Give my respects to Tracy & King and to Smith & Davis.

Respectfully Yours, GEORGE GREEN.

From Alturas.—We learn from a resident of Rocky Bar that the Idaho Quartz Mill has been very successful in crushing rock so far. The figures we did not obtain, but the result was so flattering that the owners are in high spirits. Carter, Gage & Co., are also crushing with favorable results. The snow is from five to ten feet deep. The contest for the Sheriffalty between Messrs. Howell and Johnson has not yet been decided.—Idaho World.

Speculation in Coal Lands.—Heavy sales of coal oil lands on this coast, are said to have been made to capitalists East. The transactions are made by means of the telegraph.

On Exhibition.—A man in Nevada has captured a "fretful porcupine" and is exhibiting the animal and his quills to every crowd that can raise a handful of dimes.

Extract from the U. S. Revenue Law relating to Income Tax.

To the Editor of the Oregonian: Dear Sir—As the Internal Revenue Law has had for a time [illegible] in this State, and now is the time for all persons to make up their income for the year 1864, you will confer a favor and benefit to the community by publishing the following sections of the Revenue Law, relating to Income, passed June 30th, 1864. Most respectfully,

THOMAS FRAZAR,
Assessor, Oregon.

U. S. Assessor's Office, Portland, Jan. 27, 1865.

INCOME.

Sec. 116. And be it further enacted, That there shall be levied, collected, and paid annually upon the annual gains, profits, or income of every person residing in the United States, or of any citizen of the United States residing abroad, whether derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends, salaries, or from any profession, trade, employment, or vocation, carried on in the United States or elsewhere, or from any other source whatever, except as hereinafter mentioned, if such annual gains, profits or income exceed the sum of six hundred dollars, a duty of five per centum on the excess over six hundred dollars and not exceeding five thousand dollars; and a duty of seven and one-half of one per centum per annum on the excess over five thousand dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; and a duty of ten per centum on the excess over ten thousand dollars. And the duty herein provided for shall be assessed, collected, and paid upon the gains, profits, or income for the year ending the thirty-first day of December next preceding the time for levying, collecting, and paying said duty: Provided, That income derived from interest upon notes, bonds, and other securities of the United States shall be included in estimating incomes under this section: Provided, That only one deduction of six hundred dollars shall be made from the aggregate incomes of all the members of any family composed of parents and minor children, or husband and wife, except in cases where such separate income shall be derived from the separate and individual estate, gains, or labor of the wife or child: And provided, further, That net profits realized by sales of real estate purchased within the year for which income is estimated, shall be chargeable as income; and losses on sales of real estate purchased within the year for which income is estimated, shall be deducted from the income of such year.

Sec. 117. And be it further enacted, That in estimating the annual gains, profits, or income of any person, all national, State, and municipal taxes, other than the national income tax, lawfully assessed within the year upon the property or sources of income of any person, as aforesaid, from which said annual gains, profits, or income is or should be derived, shall be deducted, in addition to six hundred dollars, from the gains, profits, or income of the person who has actually paid the same, whether owner, tenant, or mortgagor; also the salary or pay received for services in the civil, military, naval, or other service of the United States, including senators, representatives, and delegates in Congress, above the rate of six hundred dollars per annum; and there shall also be deducted the income derived from dividends on shares in the capital stock of any bank, trust company, savings institution, insurance, railroad, canal, turnpike, canal navigation, or slackwater company, and the interest on any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any such corporation or company, which shall have been assessed and the tax paid, as hereinafter provided; also the amount paid by any person for the rent of the homestead used or occupied by himself or his family, and the rental value of any [illegible]

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—We are in receipt of files from the Sandwich Islands to the last of December 1864 [illegible] sugar, 200 [illegible] rice, coffee [illegible] California [illegible] The new [illegible] were received with great rejoicing by the American residents, and [illegible] Hawaiian capital the Native [illegible] Parliament [illegible] Mr. J. W. McGraw, Mr. R. Weeks and Mr. [illegible] Silver were among the visitors from Portland to the Islands. We expect [illegible] the [illegible] in port by the 2 th inst.

THE SEWING MACHINE WAR.—Such is the title given to [illegible] published at San Francisco [illegible] two kinds of sewing machines exhibited at the late Oregon State Fair [illegible] the Florence [illegible] the Grover & Baker which [illegible] the Florence with double vengeance to establish the gen nomen [illegible] is a local quarrel, and most interests Oregonians while the plot is being worked out in San Francisco. We shall watch the progress of the war and should [illegible] the champion.

FINE WEATHER.—[illegible] we are [illegible] The sun really never shone on a people with greater magnificence, and at night the moon [illegible] a flight of unequaled splendor. These are the days and nights for real enjoyments in riding, driving or walking, and our people seem to enter into the spirit of such amusement with a happy determination. The roads are not bad. [N. B.—Outside of the city.] And a jaunt, or excursion, in the [illegible] is very refreshing.

BEARS AND BARS.—[illegible] the Astoria Marine as to bars we mean what we say. The character of all obstructions to navigation in this river are perfectly understood by men of sense; but those who prefer speaking in a different manner than the light of reason are not expected to cultivate truthful theories on the subject of the commercial interests of this State. The question [illegible] what we will do when ten or thirty vessels arrive daily is easily answered—we will load them and send them to sea, with valuable cargoes, as we have with the [illegible] which [illegible] not be able to go within 30 miles of Portland" according to the calculations of the Marine. After we have done this we can furnish the Astorians with vegetables and bread, to eat with their clams and salmon caught annually a la aboriginal.

BEAUTIFUL SHELLS.—We were shown yesterday a collection of the finest sea shells ever brought to Oregon. They number twenty six varieties, and are indescribably beautiful. They were brought from the sea in the region of Japan, to San Francisco, and there purchased by Capt. J. W. Miller, of the bark Atlanta, and he sold in this port yesterday. Mr. Joseph Buchtel was the purchaser, at a price of nearly $150. We are not sufficiently well posted to give each its appropriate title, but we know they are rich and of very rare species. They are among the most valuable, and we suppose their peculiarities will be searched for by the possessor, for the benefit of the admirers of the collection.

THE COUCH.—The steamer John H. Couch will be almost a new boat when her overhauling is completed. The hurricane deck has been reduced, to give place for one with better cabin accommodations and the lower cabin will be removed entirely, to make room for storing freight. She will go into the dry docks at Capt. Clinton's ship yard within ten days, and when re-launched will have been repaired from the keel up. The Couch was always considered a fast craft, but her new dressing will make her better than ever, not only in speed, but appearance and capacity.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Quite a number of rough cases were brought before the Recorder yesterday and disposed of, in accordance with the character of the misdemeanor and the guilt of the accused. There were parties appearing there whose names we suppress, being requested to do so and hence we omit the proceedings entire. For the benefit of all such in future we say—the docket of the Recorder's Court is for the public, and if persons do not wish us to use their names in making our reports from its pages they must preserve order.

WALTER BROTHERS.—We take great pleasure in recommending to the patronage of community, the firm of Walter Brothers, carpet dealers, on Front, near Morrison street. They are among the first, and most successful merchants of the city, and have quite recently added new attractions to their stock, which now embraces a very elegant assortment for the interior dealer or the citizen to select from. Their advertisement will be found in another column.

LOSING THEIR JEWELRY.—Yesterday morning, upon entering the County Jail in this city, the officers found Brockie Jack, and one of the other prisoners, without their hand cuffs and shackles. An inspection of the matter disclosed the fact that they had laid aside the cumbersome jewelry by the aid of tools, and foul play being suspected Sheriff Stitzel gave positive orders for their confinement to the cells, and their security is undoubted.

RESIGNED.—Mr. Thomas Crane, for two years past the popular and efficient Supervisor of the Insane Asylum has resigned and is succeeded by Mr. Kenoworth, late of Stockton. Mr. Crane goes to Southern Oregon on a visit to his friends. The duties incumbent on the office which he has filled has necessarily made it very [illegible] for Mr. [illegible] and the change has been made at his solicitation.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting our friend and former fellow-craftsman, Lieut. C. H. Hill, last evening, who is in the city from Fort Dalles. The gentleman looks as though it agrees with him finely to enjoy the comforts and exercise [illegible] for Infantry officer. Multnomah's Company is reported to be in good health.

[illegible]—A deed, executed [illegible] Baker by W. T. Smith on the 7th day of February 186 and acknowledged before [illegible] Notary Public was picked up in the street, corner of Alder and Front yesterday and the owner can have the same by application at this office and paying for this notice.

MUSTERED IN.—Lieutenant Bowen recruiting officer for Company F 1st Oregon Cavalry has enlisted nineteen men eighteen of whom were mustered into the service yesterday by Lieut. [illegible] and received $100 advance United States bounty [illegible].

COUNTY COURT.—The February term of the County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, commenced its session in the Court House in this city yesterday morning. The number of cases on the docket for trial at the present term is not large and consist of business mostly of a Probate order.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer [illegible] yesterday arrived from [illegible] with 110 passengers, the first [illegible] Oregon.

TREASURE.—Mr. [illegible] Wells Fargo & Co's Messenger, arrived from the Dalles last evening by the O. S. N. Company's steamer Wilson G. Hunt, bringing over $60,000 in treasure, mostly remittances to parties in this city.

GOVERNMENT FREIGHT.—We noticed the steamer Fannie Troup yesterday receiving cargo alongside of the bark Atlanta for Fort Vancouver, which embraced a variety of government stores, for the Commissary Department.

THE MARBLE HEART.—At Willamette Theatre [illegible] evening was presented the [illegible] The Marble Heart. [illegible] Mr. Irwin [illegible] Mr. Waldron [illegible]

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured, strength in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful [illegible] healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, [illegible] they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility; and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S

PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is that surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question and adds "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, hardly intended no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

Anaesthetics.

With an aching tooth, one morning bright
Pat Donnegan left his home;
The "murtherin' blackguard," all the night
Had made poor Donnegan moan.

With sorrowful phiz and watery eye,
Pat trudged along in the rain,
When these words his optics chanced to spy,
"Teeth pulled without any pain."

Down went his shovel, and in went Pat,
Asked a "broth of a boy" as he was;
And down in the dentist's chair he sat,
With widely distended jaws.

Drawing the nippers and out came the tooth,
"Ye're a miserable cuss," said Pat,
"You'll trouble me now no more, forsooth,"
And he made for his old white hat.

"[illegible], if you please," said the dentist man,
"Och, murther! what's that yer sayin'
Ye thieving old pirate, don't it say on yer sign
'Teeth pulled without any pain'?"

A Battle Picture.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives the following thrilling account of a scene that occurred in the last day's fight before Nashville:

ASSAULT OF THE HILL DECIDED UPON.

Steadman left the group and passed over to the left, toward his own command. Staff officers galloped in various directions. I rode close to Gen. Wood.

"I am going to assault that hill," said he, "in a short time. Col. Post is out reconnoitering the position to see if he can take it with his brigade. He will be pretty sure to decide that he can."

I watched the General closely, to see if, in this great crisis, I could detect any sign of trepidation on his part. Rigid as a statue he sat upon his horse. He was still lame from the effects of a wound received at Jonesboro, and an orderly with crutches always rode very near him. Scan his features as closely as I would, yet even while he talked I could detect, upon them no other expression than that which they wear when he is in his office, not thinking of a battle, or when at the dinner-table conversing with his friends. The same calm, genial, pleasant, smile lighted up his countenance. Only in his eyes, sparkling like diamonds, could be seen his appreciation of the stern realities by which he was surrounded; in them the fire of battle blazed visibly.

"We have been successful so far," he said to some of the members of his staff; "and I trust we shall not fail in this attempt. Yet we may. We can hardly expect always to win. Perhaps the enemy will be able to hold the hill against us. If we do not succeed in our assault we will try some other plan. But we will beat them in the end."

COL. POST THINKS HE CAN TAKE IT.

Just then a young, handsome, intelligent looking, well formed officer came dashing up toward the General. It was Col. Post, of the Seventy-fourth Illinois, commanding brigade in Gen. Beatty's division.

"Well, Post," said Wood, "how does the hill look?"

"I can take it!" replied the individual addressed; and a child could not have seemed more eager to be sent off to the enjoyment of a holiday than this brave and noble young man to the awful struggle which must ensue for the hill.

"All right," said General Wood, in answer to Post's assertion that he could take the hill, and turning to the Chief of Artillery, "let them have plenty of metal, God-speed."

THE COVERING FIRE.

The fire of the batteries was at once redoubled; an immense volume of blue smoke rolled over the scene; fierce flashes shot from the muzzles of the guns as they were discharged, to be answered the next moment by fierce flashes from the hill as the shell burst upon its sides and summit; the air was convulsed with sound, and amid the whole, the hissing and hurtling and shrieking of the flying missiles could be distinctly heard.

ORDER OF THE CHARGE.

Under cover of this tremendous fire our lines were formed for the assault. Colonel Post's brigade was to move directly upon the hill, Colonel Straight's brigade, also of Beatty's division, was formed on his right, in support. Immediately on Post's left Col. Thompson's colored brigade was drawn up. Colonel Morgan's colored brigade was next to the left. Colonel Grosvenor's brigade moved to the support of both.

And now "Forward!" was the word. On they moved, still under cover of that awful fire of artillery—onward! into the very bosom of the cloud of blue and gray that hung over the scene—onward! to what to hundreds was certain death. To get a better view of this terrific charge, I rode over to the left, in a position of the line whence Colonel Morgan's men started. Here, from a slightly elevated plot of ground, I could distinctly see all that was not obscured by the smoke.

ITS PROGRESS.

Our men were moving forward with loud and continued cheers, and crashes of musketry began to mingle with the roar of cannon. The enemy reserved their fire until Colonel Post's brigade had fairly commenced to climb the hill. Then from their battery on the summit leaped the angry fire, and a perfect hurricane of canister shot tore through our ranks. A little further we advanced; and then the whole surface of the eminence seemed to blaze with musketry. It was no longer an ordinary hill. It was a flaming, roaring, crushing volcano, dealing death and destruction more deadly than if hot liquid lava were pouring down its sides.

No description can do justice to the terrific scene. And amidst all this hell of smoke and thunder and fire, our men steadily advanced. Ever and anon their loud cheer rung above the deafening roar of battle; ever and anon you could catch glimpses through the thickening vapor, of our flag still moving on.

ITS FAILURE.

The colored troops vied with the white in sternness of determination, and in the persistent energy with which they forced their way up the hill. But all around it the rebels lay behind their works and poured into our uncovered heroes the deadly hail. But, hark! the cheering has ceased. The roar of cannons and the crash of muskets is louder, deadlier than before! There are signs of wavering on our left. Colonel Thompson's men, in endeavoring to pass around the left of the hill, have been met by a terrible flank fire from the enemy's works on that side. In their fierce desire to storm the position they rush one ahead of the other; and thus their order is broken. They do not yet retire; but under the withering fire which is destroying them, they become a confused mass. The troops upon the right torn in pieces by the infernal fire from the summit of the hill, pause an instant, confused by the appearance of the left. To pause under such circumstances is to fail. The brave Colonel Post is just at this juncture mortally wounded. In a moment all order is lost; and the gallant legions, whose conduct even in temporary failure has immortalized them, rush back confused, bleeding and exhausted, to the line from whence they set out.

WILL WOOD RENEW THE ATTACK?

The clouds have been thickening all day, and the rain begins to fall rapidly. Shall we acknowledge defeat at this last and vital point? Shall the blood of our slaughtered soldiers not be avenged? Has Wood at last failed?

No! He will take that hill now, if Hood himself with his whole army were concentrated upon it. Calmly, quietly, with the same pleasant smile as before, he superintends the reformation of his broken battalions and issues his orders.

Pour into the rebels your shot and shell again artillerymen! Give the traitors up that hill not a moment's rest! No matter though your tired horses sink half way to their knees in mud, let them pull up the ponderous cannons to such positions that the fiery products of their wombs will be more effectual. No matter though your men be covered with mud, begrimed with the blood and powder and soaked with rain, let them resume their task, ram home their cartridges, and send them on their work of death!

Bring back your colored soldiers to the charge, brave Thompson! Post's heroes must have an opportunity to avenge his death! Kimball and Grose and Kirby and Elliot, and all the rest must have a chance!

The thunder of artillery renders it more awful by the approach of night, (for it was now nearly four in the afternoon,) sounded more deafening and continuous than before; and the rebels, anticipating another charge, withdrew a number of troops from the left of their position, and marched them toward the point which had previously been most fiercely assailed.

THE CHARGE RENEWED—ENTIRE SUCCESS.

The eagle eye of Wood at once detected his advantage. While Post's veterans assailed the hill directly, and Thompson's gallant Africans moved on the rebel right, the bank of Elliot's and Kimball's divisions were hurled like a thunderbolt against the rebel left. Wood himself, accompanied by all his staff, closely followed and directed the charge. In vain the fires of hell blazed forth anew. In vain the terrified rebels, discovering their error, endeavored to shift back toward their weakened left. To attempt any maneuver in the face of the mighty storm now howling around them, was in itself destruction. In column and in line, deployed here, in masses there, our soldiers rushed upon them; and although the hill-side was wet with the blood of many a martyr, they neither wavered nor hesitated nor paused until every portion of the opposing works were carried, and such of the rebel legions as held them and were not killed or captured, were fleeing in wild dismay from the hill.

It was the last stand of the foe that evening.

"Route, ruin, panic scattered all," and I really believe that had not night intervened, the rebel army would have been then and there totally destroyed.

ITEMS OF ECONOMY.—A strip of thick paper laid over the edge of each stair, under the carpet, will preserve a stair-carpet from wearing through one-third longer than otherwise.

Mark and number all clothing, bed linen, table-linen, towels, &c. Count up frequently silver, knives and forks, and all articles in common use.

Clean brass kettles before using, with salt and vinegar, to avoid being poisoned by the verdigris.

Gum tragacanth dissolved in water makes a good and cheap paste which will keep till it is used up.

Mackeral tubs, when painted green, do very well to plant house plants in; and large cocoa-nut shells, cut in two and hung up with cords, make respectable hanging baskets.

When the wick is too large for the lamp, pull out a few threads and it will go in.

The flavor of common molasses is much improved by boiling and skimming it before using it.

Damp tea-leaves scattered over a carpet before sweeping, improve the colors and give it a clean, fresh look.

When you want a dust-pan, have it made to order, with the handle turning down instead of up, so as to rest on the floor and tip the dust-pan at a proper angle for receiving the dust. It is a great convenience, as you then do not have to stoop and hold it while sweeping.

The patent carpet-hooks, sold by the hardware merchants, are generally superior to tacks, saving a great deal of painful drudgery in putting down a carpet, and not requiring to be taken out and replaced every time the carpet is shaken.

Charcoal and honey, mixed together and used as a dentrifice, will whiten the teeth with a few applications.

Beef tea is best made by cutting up tender, juicy beef in bits about one inch square, and put it in a strong bottle, cork it tightly and set it in a kettle of cold water. Boil it about two hours. The fluid thus obtained will be the pure nutriment of the meat, and its tonic effects are powerful. Physicians have considered it better than alcoholic stimulants in case of extreme exhaustion, where there is a feverish tendency in the patient.

COURTSHIP OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR.—The following extract from the life of the wife of the Conqueror is exceedingly curious, as being highly characteristic of the manners of a semi civilized age and nation:

"After some years delay, William appears to have become desperate, and if we may trust to the evidence of the Chronicle of Ingerce, in the year 1047, waylaid Matilda in the streets of Bruges, as she was returning from mass, seized her, rolled her in the dirt, spoiled her rich array, and, not content with these outrages, struck her repeatedly, and rode off at full speed. This Teutonic mode of courtship brought the affair to a crisis; for Matilda, either convinced of the strength of William's passion by the violence of his behavior, or afraid of encountering a second beating, concented to become his wife. How he ever presumed to enter her presence again after such a series of enormities the chronicler saith not, and we are at a loss to imagine."

CURIOUS CALCULATION.—Few persons have any tolerable notion of the space which would be occupied by the whole population now living on the globe, if congregated together; and as to the vast majority, the dead, the wildest conjectures have been indulged in. Some have even been doubtful whether such a number of human beings could find standing room on the whole face of the earth. Now, taking the present population of the earth to number one thousand millions, and assuming that the average population from the time of Adam until now has been half that number, and that the generations of men have averaged forty years each, we come to this conclusion: that Massachusetts would afford sitting room for all the men, women and children, now upon the earth, and that a number of human beings equal to all that have ever lived on the face of the earth might stand within the area of the largest county in Massachusetts.

"Benevolence," said Sidney Smith, in a charity sermon, "is a sentiment common to human nature. A never sees B in distress without wishing C to relieve him!" Rochefoucault never said a more brilliant thing than that, nor one more sarcastic.

"How do you like me now?" asked a belle of her spouse, as she sailed into the room, with a sweeping train of muslin following her. "Well," said he, "to tell you the truth, it is impossible for me to like you any longer."

A Democratic editor in Iowa profanely says his party in that State has taken the degree of L. L. D.—"Licked Like the Devil!"

Why is a minister like a locomotive? Because you are to look out for him when the bell rings.

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
January 12th, 1865.

WHEREAS, I HAVE RECEIVED A REQUISITION from Major General Irvin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, [illegible] for another regiment of [illegible] [illegible] that the Regimental and Company organization of the present Oregon Regiment [illegible] Cavalry [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Now, therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of the State of Oregon, [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] Companies [illegible] the [illegible].

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 12th day of January, A. D. 1865.

ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY,
Secretary of State.

Plan of Recruiting.

The Regiment will retain the name of the 1st Cavalry Oregon Volunteers. It will consist of twelve Companies. [illegible] Companies of the old Regiment will be recruited to the minimum strength required. Five new Companies remain to be raised. A Recruiting Officer for each new Company will be appointed.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to Recruiting Officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective Companies in the District to which they are assigned, and be ready to be mustered into the service within a time hereafter to be named. All the Officers for the new Companies and the First and Second Lieutenants for the old ones will be commissioned as soon as the Companies are filled.

As soon as it is practicable, the State will be divided into Districts, according to the number of [illegible] [illegible] liable to [illegible] duty, and to the number of troops heretofore furnished. When such District has furnished its quota of men there will be no draft in the same under this call.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each Volunteer mustered into the service for three years, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States.

Under Act of Congress, those who enlist for one year are entitled to a bounty from the General Government of one hundred dollars; for two years, two hundred dollars, and for three years, three hundred dollars, one-third of which is payable at the time of muster-in. Neither drafted men nor substitutes furnished either before or after the draft are entitled to bounty.

The wages of a private soldier are $16 a month, besides clothing, equipments, rations, medicines and medical attendance, and other allowances furnished by the United States.

The pay per month is to 1st Sergeants of Cavalry, $24; Sergeants, $20; Corporals, $18; Buglers, $16. A Company can be mustered in on attaining a minimum of 82 enlisted men.

All the Horses for a Cavalry Regiment will be furnished by the Government.

Appreciating highly the patriotic action of the people in responding to the previous call for an Infantry Regiment, it is hoped that equal alacrity will be exhibited in raising a Regiment of Cavalry.

Organization of a Regiment.

One Colonel,	One Reg'l Commissary (an extra lieutenant.)
One Lieut.-Colonel,	One Veterinary Surgeon,
Three Majors,	One Sergeant Major,
One Surgeon,	One Quartermaster Serg't,
Two Assistant Surgeons,	One Commissary Sergeant,
One Regimental Adjutant, (an extra lieutenant,)	Two Hospital Stewards,
One Reg'l Quartermaster, (an extra lieutenant.)	One Saddler Sergeant,
	One Chief Trumpeter.

Organization of a Company.

One Captain,	Five Sergeants,
One First Lieutenant,	Eight Corporals,
One Second Lieutenant,	Two Trumpeters,
One First Sergeant,	Two Farriers or Blacksmiths,
One Quartermaster Sergeant,	One Saddler,
One Commissary Sergeant	One Wagoner.

The minimum number of enlisted men required for a Company is 82; the maximum number, 101.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of [illegible]—the [illegible] of the [illegible]—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys, and far-off islands of the [illegible]—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

ROSENDALE, WIS., Sept. 15, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—[illegible] and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * *

SOUTH WEBSTER, O., July 27, 1863.

* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for [illegible] years with scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by one bottle of your Bitters.

HOWARD WORNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
New York, August 2, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE:—Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * Respectfully,

Mrs. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * "Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN

DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS many advantages over all other Wheels, both Turbines and Overshot.

It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel, and has always proved itself victorious.

This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the States and HAS NEVER MADE A FAILURE.

It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT. OF POWER from the same quantity of water. We have introduced five on this coast. They are not all in operation yet, but will be in a few days. The following testimonial is from an old and experienced Millwright, well known in this State:

WESTPORT, CLATSOP CO., OREGON,
Nov. 14th, 1864.

MESSRS. LEFFEL & MYERS—Dear Sirs: We have plenty of water now, and your DOUBLE TURBINE is in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is fully equal if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot used, we can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior to an Overshot, but yours is the first I have found. Hence we do not hesitate to recommend the American Double Turbine as the most efficient economizer of water in our knowledge.

JOHN WEST & CO.

We desire all who want Wheels to visit the following named places and have ocular demonstration of the above facts:

John West & Co., West Port, Clatsop County, Oregon.
Lewis Love, Vancouver, W. T.
[illegible], Idaho City, I. T.
Hampton Kelly, three miles East of Portland.
Fowler & Co., Oregon City.

Address
LEFFEL & MYERS,
Portland, Oregon,
Care Richards & McCraken.

Dec. 2, 1864.

N. B.—A new supply of Wheels will be brought out next day of June. Orders will be filed and shipped according to date of order.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry: and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most eminent and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It acts directly upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a [illegible] process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

Without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the [illegible] world, is attested by certificates of analyses from Dr. J. R. Chilton, of New York, and Prof. [illegible], U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1860, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color. Hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

and in every disease in any way connected with the disorder of the Reproductive Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor—the medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED not to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

THE OREGONIAN,

A

FIRST-CLASS POLITICAL AND FAMILY NEWSPAPER,

Published Daily and Weekly.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE FIFTEENTH VOLUME,
Commencing November 16th, 1864.

The character of the OREGONIAN, which has been regularly issued for fourteen years, (being the oldest newspaper in the State) has become so well established, and is so favorably known, that we hardly deem it necessary at the present time to announce that it will continue to be a FIRST-CLASS INDEPENDENT FAMILY AND POLITICAL NEWSPAPER. We shall spare no efforts towards further improvement and progress, and to make the OREGONIAN not only a complete compendium of current news and passing events, but also a pleasant fireside companion and a faithful commercial guide. It will contain full reports of important naval, military and political movements, with Stories, Sketches, Poetry, Editorials upon current topics, Correspondence from different sources and Telegraphic Dispatches up to the time of going to press.

It is the only paper in Oregon that gives full and ungarbled Telegraphic Reports, and that receives these Reports in full, expressly for its own columns.

The size of the WEEKLY is much enlarged with the commencement of the present volume, but the price remains still at the low sum of THREE DOLLARS per annum, hoping thereby to secure an increase of circulation as the reward of our enterprise.

Our columns will be devoted to the advocacy of Union principles, and we hope by a candid and courteous discussion of political principles to command readers of every political complexion and the respect of all our readers.

We shall specially endeavor to conserve the interests and merit the patronage of the large and important mining regions of Idaho, Washington and our own State, to publish all matters of interest relating thereto, and do full justice to their growth and importance, and shall endeavor to receive interesting and reliable correspondence from that section of country.
